DUE HOME SOON

Washington troops who belong to the old, Third Infantry Regiment of the District National Guard are on their way home, the War Department anonunced today. The announcement said that Companies A, B, and C of the 163d Infantry, of the Forty-first Division, salled from Brest on board the cfulser Seattle and are due to reach New York Thusday, February 13. The Seattle will dock at New York with a medical detachment and the First Battalion Headquarters Company of the 163d Infantry, in addition to the District guardsmen.

The Washington men will probably be demobilized at Camp Lee, as this camp, together with Camps Devens. Gordon, Dix, and Shelby, are delegnated by the War Departemnt as demobilization points for troops abourd the Seattle. The Seattle is also bringing home the 116th Supply Train, designated for demobilization at Camp Dix. This includes a medical detachment, headquarters and supply detachments, and Companies A. B., and C. Battery C of the Fiftieth Regiment, Coast Artillery Corps, and Casual Company 235, composed of New York troops, are also on board. The War Department also announced the sailing from Bordeaux of the transport Pattori Maru for New York. This transport is bringing one casual officer. The transport Ancona, which sailed from Marsellels January 29, with six casual officers, is due shortly, but the

U. S. DECORATES BRITON WHO SAVED 600 YANKS

LONDON, Feb. 4 .- The American distinguished service medal has been awarded by President Wilson to Lieut. Francis W. Craven, who commanded the British destroyer Mounsey, which saved 600 American soldiers from the British transport Otranto when she was sunk in a collision off the Scottish coast on October 6, 1918, with the loss of 357 American soldiers.

The medal was presented to Lieutenant Craven by Maj. Gen. John Bid-dle, commander of the American forces in the United Kingdom.

Thirty minutes after the Otranto struck the rocks off Islay Island the destroyer Mounsey, herself damaged by the heavy seas, answered the distress calls of the Otranto. Captain Davidson, of the Otranto, warned Lieutenant Craven not to attempt to reach the side of the transport. Craven, however, carried out his maneuver and succeeded in getting to the side of the Otranto, from which he took 600 American soldiers.

"EXECUTE KAISER IN U. S." ALBANY, N. Y., Feb. 4.-Assembly man Albert Link wants the Kaiser executed in the United States. He has introduced a resolution to that effect in the assembly.
